

February Schedule

December 6, 2025
to
March 21, 2026

Krishna Reddy at 100: Of Friendships: Group Show

A centennial exhibition with the works of Krishna Reddy. In collaboration with Musui Art Foundation in Santiniketan.

Tokaroun, Santiniketan

8th January to
15th February, 2026

Nature of Nostalgic Delights: Group Show

Exhibition featuring 17 artists exploring both Mother Nature and the nature of nostalgia—its rhythms, the softening of time, and bittersweet pleasures. The works invite viewers to reflect inward as much as they observe the world around them.

Rukshaan Art, Mumbai

9th January to
8th February, 2026

Birla Academy of Art and Culture: 59th Annual Celebrations

Curated by Uma Ray, drawing a large number of young and emerging artists from across India. The festival includes Zameen: Group Show curated by Ina Puri featuring the works of Zarina Hashmi, Shambhavi Singh, Mithu Sen, Riyas Komu, K R Sunil, Sumedh Rajan, Birendra Yadav, V. Vinu, Debasish Mukherjee, Ratheesh T and Vikrant Bhise.

Birla Academy of Art and Culture, Kolkata

8th January to
19th February, 2026

Have we forgotten how to feel?

These works explore the tension between performed identities and suppressed emotions. Vibrant, hand-embroidered motifs—ice cream, balloons, birds, and contemplative figures—blend whimsy with introspection, capturing the hidden pauses, unspoken anger, and tender moments of adulthood. Playful at first glance, they invite viewers to reflect and reconnect with buried parts of themselves.

Chemould CoLab, Mumbai

February Schedule

9th January to
19th February, 2026

Remember Her Name: Group Show

Exhibition exploring how intimacy, dialogue and mutual regard shaped the practices of artist couples whose creative paths unfolded side by side.

Kadari Art Gallery, Hyderabad

8th January to
20th February, 2026

The Fourth Wall

Marking four decades of contemporary practice, this exhibition reflects on evolving art-making, the visibility of artists, and shifting audience experiences. Bridging past and future, it highlights storytelling as the enduring core of contemporary art, while embracing new media, forms, and the ever-changing landscape of creative practice.

Sakshi Gallery, Mumbai

11th January to
28th February, 2026

Intimate Terrains: Michal Glickson & Shanthi Swaroopni

Exhibition by two artists whose practice diverge in form yet converge in ethos - Swaroopini's introspective figuration and Glickson's nomadic, scroll-based mapping.

Threshold Art Gallery, New Delhi

22nd January to
3rd February, 2026

49th International Kolkata Book Fair

One of Asia's largest literary gatherings, this annual fair draws millions with books, cultural programs, and performances. Since 1976, it has hosted international publishers, authors, and a guest country pavilion, fostering cross-cultural exchange while celebrating the region's rich literary heritage through discussions, launches, and vibrant festivities.

Boi Mela Prangan, Kolkata

February Schedule

24th January to
21st February, 2026

Place No Trace / Trace No Place: The Luminous Twilight

These landscapes unfold as immersive, shifting realms. Monumental from afar yet intricate up close, they guide the eye across fragmented terrains of illuminated cities, forests, and mandala-like formations. Ambiguous and uninhabited, the works evoke provisional ‘places’ where time, memory, and space merge into a luminous, contemplative experience.

Palette Art Gallery, New Delhi

31st January to
8th February, 2026

Kala Ghoda Arts Festival

A nine-day cultural celebration featuring art installations, live music, theatre, dance, literature, workshops, heritage walks, food, and more, offering a rich blend of Indian art, culture and history.

The Kala Ghoda Art Precinct, Mumbai.

2nd to 15th
February, 2026

F N Souza: Sacred and Profane

Showcasing a range of modernist works of the artist from the 1950s–60s.

Kumar Gallery, New Delhi

3rd to 20th
February, 2026

What We Carry

Exhibition exploring shared moments of meals, memories, and gestures—small acts that bridge selves.

Art Incept, Gurugram

3rd to 17th
February, 2026

Flashback

Black-and-white candid photographs from Indian film sets of the 1980s–90s capturing actors, extras and crew in moments both intimate and spectacular.

PHOTOINK, New Delhi

February Schedule

4th to 15th
January, 2026

Orbits of Attention

Exhibition celebrating the histories and heritage of handloom.

Latitude 28, New Delhi

6th February, 2026

NAMAN

A commemorative Hindustani classical music concert honouring the birth anniversary of Bharat Ratna Pandit Bhimsen Joshi. The highlight is a rare vocal jugalbandi by Pandit Shrinivas Joshi and Shri Viraj Joshi, reflecting the enduring legacy of the Kirana Gharana. Accompanied by Pandit Sanatan Goswami on harmonium and Pandit Samar Saha on tabla, the concert stands as a heartfelt tribute to a musical legend and the living continuum of Indian classical music.

Kolkata Centre for Creativity

11th February, 2026

Kuch Panne

Four timeless stories on stage, directed by Seema Bhargava Pahwa and produced by Manukriti Pahwa.

Prithvi Theatre, Mumbai

12th February,
2026

SANMAAN

An initiative by the Crafts Council of Telangana, honouring artisans and craft practitioners whose dedication keeps India's craft traditions alive.

CCT Spaces, Hyderabad

19th to 22nd
February, 2026

Karigari 5.0

A four-day art market celebrating India's folk arts, crafts, and textile traditions. Featuring master artisans and emerging makers from across the country, the market offers handmade textiles, pottery, paintings, metalwork and more, creating an immersive, artisan-to-consumer experience that supports sustainability, fair trade, and living craft traditions.

Kolkata Centre for Creativity

February Schedule

21st to 22nd
January, 2026

Clay Craft '26

A curated showcase of handcrafted pottery from studios across India, bringing together diverse textures, forms, and stories.

CCT Spaces, Hyderabad

21st to 22nd
January, 2026

Nabanna Folk Art and Crafts Fair

A 10-day annual folk art and craft fair held during Basanta Utsav. Live craft demonstrations, direct interaction with artisans, and a showcase of traditional, innovative and climate-conscious practices. Along with talks, discussions, workshops and live-music.

Gitanjali Cultural Complex, Bolpur

