

September Schedule

6th July to
6th September,
2025

Deconstructed Realms

Beginning with early experiments by Gaganendranath Tagore and the Bengal School in the 1920s, where artists combined fractured forms with regional motifs, this exhibition reveals Cubism's lasting influence on the evolution of modern Indian art.

The Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai

17th July to
20th September,
2025

No Race, No Colour

First solo exhibition in India by Sri Lankan artist, Pushpakanthan Pakkiyarajah, on the works conceived by him in the last 4 years. Using materials like wood dust, jute and cloth, his sculptures and drawings explore how trauma leaves its mark on land and people.

Experimenter, Kolkata

24th July to
4th September,
2025

Objects May Appear Softer...: A Powerful All-Women Showcase

Bringing together artists from across India, spanning generations, movements, and mediums, this exhibition showcases painting, sculpture, textile, installation, digital media, and performance.

Featuring Pooja Acharya, Manisha Agarwal, Aparna Bidasaria, Poonam Bhatnagar, Pragya Bhargava, Sujata Bajaj, Chaitali Chanda, Kanchan Chander, Susmita Chowbey, Siri Devi Khandavilli, Hansika Mangwani, Shifali Mehra, Nehmat Mongia, Manisha Parekh, Madhvi Parekh, Tarini Sethi, Meena Sansanwal, Sahaya Sharma, Yashika Sugandh, Nilofer Suleman, Hema Upadhyay

Black Cube Gallery, New Delhi

12th August to
20th September,
2025

In Between the Lines and Walls: Prasanta Ghosh

This body of work navigates the intersections of language, identity, and architecture. Rooted in observation, storytelling, and immersion, it reflects on how systems—both spoken and built—construct, restrict, and shape human experience, while revealing the unseen spaces in between.

Studio Art, New Delhi

September Schedule

14th August to
11th September,
2025

Where River Meets the Sea: Group Show

Contemporary textile and fibre based artwork, rooted in lineage. Featuring Alamu Kumaresan, Aparajita Jain Mahajan, Dr. Savia Viegas, Hansika Sharma, Lakshmi Madhavan, and Meenakshi Nihalani.

Anupa Mehta Contemporary Art, Mumbai

14th August to
21st September,
2025

Devil is in the Details: Group Show

Curated by Supriya Lahoti Gandhi and Jayesh Mathur, the exhibition explores the influence of Indian classical miniature paintings on contemporary artistic practices.

Kalakriti Gallery, Hyderabad

15th August to
15th September,
2025

Salon: The India Way

Curated by Poonji Nath this exhibiton brings together modernist works from Europe and India, echoing the spirit of the historic Paris Salon. Featuring artists such as Picasso, Giacometti, Renoir, Manjit Bawa, Ram Kumar, Zarina Hashmi, FN Souza, Tyeb Mehta, and others.

Nature Morte, Mumbai

21st August to
13th September,
2025

The Shadows of Absence: Tom Vattakuzhy

The exhibition explores the recent works of the artist that reflects on the environment he lives in, focusing interpersonal relationships in an archetypal family that has seen the ups and downs of life through changing economies of the region.

Vadehra Art Gallery, New Delhi

21st August to
27th September,
2025

MYCELIAL LEGACIES IV: The Ground We Share: Group Show

Featuring painting, sculpture, ceramics, photography, installation, and video, by 20 artists affiliated to Faculty of Fine Arts, M.S. University, Vadodara.

Anant Art Gallery, Noida

September Schedule

21st August to
18th September,
2025

Crossroads Blues: Group Show

A photography exhibition, based on the theme of meeting the devil at the crossroads - that is ominous, seductive and induces tension. Featuring Avinash Veeraraghavan, Mariam Suhail, Maya Mima, Reyaz Badaruddin, Shiva Nallaperumal, Suchender P., Sudarshan Shetty, Sunil Padwal, Farheen Fatima, Ketaki Sheth, Madhuban Mitra & Manas Bhattacharya, Manuel Bougot, and Martin Parr.

Galleryskye and Photoink, New Delhi

23rd August to
20th September,
2025

A Line in the Earth

This exhibition of sculptures brings together two practices shaped by the landscapes of Sri Lanka and Kerala, where earth becomes both witness and medium. Featuring Pradeep Thalawatta and Haseena Suresh.

Latitude 28, New Delhi

23rd August to
7th September,
2025

JYOT

This first solo exhibition in India by Roberto Rup Paolini, curated by Caterina Corni and Giulia Restifo. It explores Jyoth (Jyoti in Sanskrit) or light, reflecting on illumination, inner radiance, and the enduring link between human experience and the absolute.

079 | Stories, Ahmedabad

23rd August to
29th September,
2025

TOUCHING LIGHT: A Prelude to the Bicentennial of Photography (1827–2027)

A tribute to the art and soul of analogue photography, this exhibition features 19th-century treasures by 31 contemporary Indian photographers. From silver prints to chemigrams and slides.

Museo Camera Centre for the Photographic Arts,
Gurugram

September Schedule

23rd August to
28th September,
2025

Lost and Found: Group Show

Works by 8 artists who investigate how objects carry memory, history, ideology, and cultural connections, using them as muses to create sculpture, painting, installation, photography, or text.

Gallery Espace, New Delhi

29th August to
12th September,
2025

Aranyak

A tribute to Bibhutibhushan Bandopadhyay, celebrating his life and legacy Through the work of his grandson, Trinankur Banerjee, the exhibition reflects the essence of humanity and nature that permeates Bandopadhyay's writings, evoking the spirit of Bengal and its stories.

AranyaBaari, Kolkata

29th August to
20th September,
2025

No One Is a Stranger: Photographs by Kushal Ray

Bringing together 65 works from the artist's archive, this exhibition explores the fluid idea of family and kinship through photography, capturing the quiet rhythms and intimate spaces of shared life. From long-term documentation of a Kolkata family to the landscapes and communities of Ladakh, the works are imbued with tenderness, memory, and patience.

Kolkata Centre for Creativity

30th August to 18th October,
2025

Shobha Broota - Painting Infinity

Bringing together 65 works from the artist's archive, this exhibition explores the fluid idea of family and kinship through photography, capturing the quiet rhythms and intimate spaces of shared life. From long-term documentation of a Kolkata family to the landscapes and communities of Ladakh, the works are imbued with tenderness, memory, and patience.

DAG, New Delhi

September Schedule

30th August to
18th October 2025

The Body of the Ascetic

Curated by Gayatri Sinha, this exhibition features asceticism and its representation across diverse spiritual and cultural traditions in the history of the Indian subcontinent including works that span different media, time periods, and identities.

DAG, New Delhi

2nd to 4th
September 2025

CHUANI 2025- An Artisanal మండీ

This pre-festive market showcases eco-conscious products, from thoughtfully designed clothing to home goods. Visitors can meet the makers and explore the creative process.

CCT Spaces, Hyderabad.

4th September,
2025

Sakhya by Swarada Bhawe & Dr. Swati Datar

This Bharatanatyam duet explores the arc of female friendship, from playful camaraderie to intergenerational trust. Through expressive abhinaya and precise nritya, the performance traces the evolving dynamics of mother-daughter and mentor-student relationship between artists Swarada Bhawe and Dr. Swati Datar.

Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre

4th September,
2025

KARN

This reimaging of Karn, the unsung hero of the Mahabharata, traces his journey through narrative theatre and traditional martial arts. Performed by three female actors in multiple roles, the production weaves storytelling through Mayurbhanj Chau, Kalaripayattu and the martial art of Thang-Ta from Manipur.

Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre, Mumbai

September Schedule

5th and
6th September
2025

The Devi Edit by Pilitaxi

Textile exhibition in collaboration with Bariqui on premium cotton pieces by sustainable brands curated for the modern conscious shopper.

The villa at Mandeville, Kolkata

6th September,
2025

Divine Dhrupad

A textile exhibition of diverse brands—each with its own craft, aesthetic, and voice. Rooted in tradition and shaped by individual vision, they reflect a shared commitment to artistry, collaboration, and cultural expression in the festive season.

Kolkata Centre for Creativity

6th to
8th September,
2025

Timeless Heritage : Past Forward

Exhibition focusing on the historic precincts of Sovabazar Sector, showcasing strategies for preservation and adaptive reuse, with students guiding visitors through research and perspectives on heritage management.

Kolkata Centre for Creativity

7th September,
2025

60 Chowringhee Road

Experience a night of live music with six dynamic artists taking the stage for an unforgettable performance. Set for 7th September 2025, the evening promises high-energy music, vibrant performances, and a celebration of artistry and rhythm.

60 Chowringhee Banquets, Kolkata

7th September,
2025

Opening of 'Sair-e-Dilli: Chronicles of Change'

Curated by Dr Swapna Liddle, this exhibition invites visitors to explore Delhi's layered histories, tracing its evolution as a hub of art, culture, and heritage. This exhibition is a part of DAG's annual art and heritage festival 'The City as a Museum' which travels to Delhi for the first time.

Bikaner House, New Delhi

September Schedule

7th September,
2025

A Bibliophile's Bazaar

An evening of music and storytelling by indie singer-songwriter Rahgir. Known for songs like Kachha Ghada, Aadmi, and Mere Gaon Aaoge, as well as renditions of Rajasthani folk tunes, Rahgir's lyrics blend simplicity with emotional depth. Suitable for age 16+.

Daryaganj Sunday Book Market and Kathika Cultural Centre, New Delhi

10th September,
2025

Stages of Play

A preview of Shadipur Natak Utsav, led by Sudhanva Deshpande, Moloyashree Hashmi, and members of the Utsav committee, featuring a pop-up exhibition, discussion, and street play. The session highlights the role of children in community theatre and how their creativity has shaped both collective cultural expression and the course of modern art. This event is a part of DAG's annual art and heritage festival 'The City as a Museum' which travels to Delhi for the first time.

Studio Safdar, New Delhi

11th September,
2025

Rivers of the Heart

Directed by Dr. Omkar Bhatkar, this multi-sensory performance brings together meditative Spanish verses of Juan Ramón Jiménez and Antonio Machado and the raw intense poetry of Amrita Pritam and Kamala Das. The piece blends spoken word, live electric guitar, Andalusian melodies, and physical theatre into an evocative journey that transcends borders and reveals the shared rhythms of the human soul.

Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre, Mumbai

13th September,
2025

RamTa - Taufiq Qureshi and Bickram Ghosh

A powerful percussion showcase by Sangeet Natak Akademi awardee Bikram Ghosh and Taufiq Qureshi, disciple of Ustad Allarakha, blending classical, folk and contemporary Indian styles.

Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre, Mumbai

September Schedule

21st September,
2025

13th September,
2025

Winds of Celebration By Paras Nath & Darshan Doshi

Experience an electrifying fusion of Indian classical ragas, folk tunes, and global beats led by flautist Paras Nath and drummer Darshan Doshi. With soulful flute melodies, powerful percussion and vibrant improvisations, the performance celebrates both tradition and modern sound. Joined by Santosh Mulekar (piano & melodica), Navin Sharma (tabla) and Ralph Menezes (bass), the ensemble creates a joyful, cross-cultural musical journey.

Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre, Mumbai

14th September,
2025

Shakthi: An Ode to Devi Nritya Harikatha by Vishakha Hari & Sridevi Nrithyalaya

Carnatic vocalist, Vishakha Hari and the Bharatanatyam ensemble of Sridevi Nrithyalaya come together in a rare Nritya Harikatha, blending music, storytelling and dance to celebrate Durga, Lakshmi, and Saraswati in a powerful tribute to the feminine divine.

Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre, Mumbai

14th September,
2025

Raagarasaanubhuti by Sooryagayathri

Enjoy an evening of soul-stirring Carnatic music with 18-year-old singing sensation Sooryagayathri. Known for her devotional voice and heartfelt style, she brings classic songs to life with purity and emotion.

Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre, Mumbai

September Schedule

21st September,
2025

Winds of Celebration By Paras Nath & Darshan Doshi

Experience an electrifying fusion of Indian classical ragas, folk tunes, and global beats led by flautist Paras Nath and drummer Darshan Doshi. With soulful flute melodies, powerful percussion and vibrant improvisations, the performance celebrates both tradition and modern sound. Joined by Santosh Mulekar (piano & melodica), Navin Sharma (tabla) and Ralph Menezes (bass), the ensemble creates a joyful, cross-cultural musical journey.

Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre, Mumbai

